Richardson Edges Out Le Page by One Vote For Senate Presidency

Ron Richardson edged out Jim Le Page by a margin of one vote for the presidency in a Student Senate election held last Friday. Four other officers and 20 Senate members were also chosen in the election, which had the largest turnout of voters in the school's history. Nearly 65 per cent of the students voted.

Other Student Senate officers elected for the school year are John Gailey, vice-president; Linda Spangler, secretary; Jean Baum, treasurer; and Sue Cookerly, parliamentarian.

Senators Elected

Campaign Assembly

In an assembly held September 23, the nominees for Student Senate offices made their final pleas.

Bob Braxton, Cabinet president, serving as master of ceremonies, presented the aspiring nominees and their campaign managers.

These enthusiastic students are voting in the primary election.

Will We Survive?

This is the time of the crisis. The question is: Are we willing to put forth a little more effort in order to survive the great overwhelming clamor of the first few weeks of college? The answer is up to us. Most of us are sure already of our reply to this question. But there are others who are not sure what the next step will be.

The college program is different from what we have been accustomed to and sometimes it is difficult to adjust ourselves rapidly. But we also know that the reason we attend college is that it has something to offer each of us. If we are to succeed in obtaining our goals in life, therefore, we must strive forward to gain the knowledge which we will need for support.

In order to do this, we must have patience and an eagerness to learn even though the assignments often seem impossible. We should never forget that our obligations are to ourselves and that we alone must be worthy of them.

College life is rough for all of us sometimes. The quality of our efforts on these crucial days determines the extent of our success.

Braxton and Brill Head '55 Classes

The student body of J.J.C. elected class officers at separate meetings held September 28.

The sophomores, who met in the library, elected the following officers: Bob Braxton, president; Dick Madole, vice-president; Sue Ellen Dale, secretary-treasurer, and Sara Belden, parliamentarian. Sophomore sponsors are Mr. Cheatham and Mrs. Selves.

Freshman officers are Orville Brill, president; Larry Habermehl, vice-president; Martha Tucker, secretary-treasurer, and Kathryn Walker, parliamentarian. The Freshman Class held their meeting in the school auditorium.

Adults May Enroll For Night Classes

Night classes are being offered again this year at Joplin Junior College and are still open to any adult wishing to attend. The first meeting was held Tuesday night in the auditorium.

Non-credit courses offered for ten students or more are business education courses: beginning typewriting, shorthand, office machines, and psychology of selling. General Culture courses: contract bridge, effective public speaking, fly-tying and rod, basic color photography, conversational Spanish, painting at your leisure, sewing, and social dancing.

Pi Alpha Pi Elects LePage President

Jim LePage will head Pi Alpha Pi, honorary business fraternity, for the current year. Other officers elected at the meeting held on Thursday, September 29, are vice-president, Jack Armstrong, and secretary-treasurer, Phyllis Brooks.

Eleven sophomores belong to the fraternity. Orie A. Cheatham and Miss Vera Steininger sponsor the organization.

Two J.J.C. Coeds Vie for Crown

J.J.C. is very proud to have two representatives in the American Royal queen contest which is to be held October 12 to the 15 in Kansas City. These attractive young ladies are Betty Board, "Miss Webb City," and Maureen Vincent, "Miss Joplin."

A pert five-foot-seven sophomore, Betty received her crown September 17 at the Armory in Webb City in a contest sponsored by the American Legion. Betty, who is active in Pi Alpha Pi, Theta Mu Gamma, and Betas, is co-editor of the Crossroads. She has been a student of ballet and tap eleven years.

Maureen, an outstanding vocalist, was selected from a field of ten candidates on September 14 at the Fox Theater. The contest was sponsored by the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce. Maureen is a music major and sings in the J.J.C. Choir. She plans to join Theta Mu Gamma and the Y.W.C.A.

We've Got The Pep!

The newly-elected Juco cheerleaders made a successful showing at Claremore, Friday, September 18, as their school spirit cheered the Lions on to victory over the O.M.A. Cadets. Madalyn Gustafson, Donna Howard, Linda Spangler, Bette Ferris, Farolyn Campbell, and Sue Wright had been chosen by judges consisting of faculty members and students at tryouts the day before.

Captain of the squad is petite Madalyn, a returning letterman from last year. Blonde Donna is also an "Oldy" in the Juco cheer business. Sophomores Linda and Bette and freshmen Sue and Farolyn—small in stature but powerful in spirit—will attend all of the games.

The girls want your support at the games, too. "Be sure to go to all of the games," say the girls. "If we've got the pep, you'll have the team."

Crossroads Sets Wheels in Motion

Betty Board and Sara Belden are the sophomore co-editors of the Crossroads for 1955-1956, according to a recent announcement by Harry Gockel, sponsor. Sue Cookerly is business manager.

Freshman assistants to the editors are Donna Rogers, Jane Kirk, and Carolyn Dickson.

The editors and staff are deciding on the theme and drawing sketches for the make up of the book. Plans are also in progress for taking individual and group pictures.

Mr. Gockel requests that anyone interested in working on the annual watch the bulletin board and announcements to see when meetings are being called.

The complete staff will be announced later, he said.

Five Ways to Stay in School

1. Ask your instructors for help.
2. Apportion your time properly, allotting time to each subject according to its particular needs.
3. Make a mental picture of your schedule for study. Then write it down, but don't make it a "ball and chain" to tie you down. It should be flexible enough so that you can revise it from time to time.
4. Learn the art of concentration. Acquire the habit of reading and thinking at the same time. Don't daydream while you should be concentrating—get back to reality and the test you must take next hour.
5. Use a little "elbow grease" and follow a planned schedule. Perhaps by now you've realized that it takes more than good intentions to acquire a college education.

Newcomers Express Favorable Opinions Concerning School Spirit

Freshman students' second week impressions of Joplin Junior College varied and were somewhat on the serious side.

To the question "What do you think of Joplin Junior College?" Jimmy Merles, a young fellow from Seneca who attended a junior college out of state, answered: "This Junior College has a friendly, co-operative spirit. I like it much better than the college I formerly attended."

Part-time student, Ron Rae, originally from Sapulpa, Oklahoma, said: "The classes are quite informative. Students have been so friendly, helping me to meet new friends, and 'learn the ropes' in a group entirely foreign to me. Good competitive spirit in the elections is leading to a healthful attitude and an enthusiastic atmosphere."

One girl from Webb City, who wishes to remain anonymous, takes a different slant on things: "I can't get ahead for staying behind, but I think all we need is time to get in the swing of things. It won't take long."

Some Joplin students expressed appreciation for the scholastic attitude of the school.

Larry Robbins commented: "The student has a chance to express opinions without being influenced and over-shadowed by constant authority from his instructor. It's a satisfactory medium between the adolescent stage of high school and adult life."

Joel Magruder said: "I like the friendly atmosphere. The thing I enjoy most is the fact everyone is interested in learning."

From over Noel way, Maxine Henderson replied: "I like school very much this year. I'm so pleased with my teachers!"

Diana Randall, who graduated from Carl Junction last year, stated: "I loved it from the very first day, and I'm sure I'll love it as much the last day."

And here's a really quotable comment from Bruce Fingerle of Carthage: "My expectations of the activities of students in the realm of higher learning have been greatly stifled by the past few days of school. I pictured large masses of weakened, frail beings supporting immense stacks of books hurrying and scurrying through the halls toward separate destinations . . .

"When seated for classes, I found the rooms quite satisfactory, and the professors friendly—but all too eager to thrust knowledge into your spinning brain . . .

"The night J.J.C. had the mixer, I attended to find a crowd of people I knew to be my friends. Later, driving home, I had time to gather thoughts. I found a completely different picture of college than that one which had previously crowded my mind. This was going to be the roughest year of school, but it had an excellent chance of being the most enjoyable."

Have Any Poetry For Publication?

All college students are cordially invited to submit original verse to be considered for possible publication in the "Annual Anthology of College Poetry," according to a recent announcement by Dennis Hartman, secretary of the National Poetry Association.

This is the thirteenth annual college competition. The recognition afforded by publication will reflect definite credit on the author, as well as his school. Over a hundred thousand manuscripts have been submitted to the National Poetry Association in the past ten years. Of these, about 4,500 have been accepted for publication.

The rules are simple. Manuscripts must be typed or written in ink on one side of a sheet. Student's home address, name of College, and College address must appear on each manuscript. Students may submit as many manuscripts as they desire. Theme and form may be in accordance with the wish of the student contributor. In order to give as many students as possible an opportunity for recognition, and because of space limitations, shorter efforts are preferred.

Closing date for submissions of manuscripts is November 5. Send manuscripts to: National Poetry Association, 3210 Selby Avenue, Los Angeles 34, California.

Lions Take O.M.A. In Opening Game

The J.J.C. Lions marched to victory in the last quarter of a breathless game Friday, September 15 at Claremore, to beat the O.M.A. Cadets 13 to 7.

The Lions got off to a quick start when they recovered a fumble early in the first quarter on the Cadets' 42-yard line. Terry Wilson, left halfback for Joplin, swept right end for 42 yards and a touchdown. The try for the extra point failed.

In the middle of the third quarter the Cadets scored on a 35-yard run.

Late in the fourth quarter, fullback Gary Robb carried the ball for 18 yards and a touchdown. Bill Repplinger, end, kicked the extra point.

Pirates Blank Joplin

Coach Dudley Stegge's rugged eleven blanked out against the Independence Pirates, 27-0, in their first setback of the grid season, September 21, at Independence, Kansas.

Scoring once in each quarter, the Pirates proved too powerful for the Joplinites. The tallies came as a result of tremendous rushing gains and long-shot passes. Coach Stegge's teamsters could not plug up the front line gap the Kansans ploughed through.

The loss gave the Lions a 1-1 record for the season. The game, however, was a non-conference tilt.

Sullivan and Cure Suffer Grid Injuries

Jim Sullivan, sophomore quarterback for the Lions, suffered a broken nose in the game between Joplin and O.M.A. He was taken to St. John's Hospital Saturday and underwent surgery that evening. He was dismissed Wednesday, September 21, and reported for practice the following Monday.

Also on the injured list is Paul Cure, fullback for the Lions. He was injured during a practice session Tuesday, September 20, and will be unable to play any more football this season.

Sports Topics

By Jim Ellis

I wonder if a couple of Patton's tanks are available. We could use them in our own "front lines."

According to my figuring, which isn't very accurate, the Lions will have about ten "whole" men left at the end of the football season. We're losing on the average of three a game and that's not bad. All I can suggest is that the backfield boys start eating a lot and put on weight to defend themselves in a final game.

I'll be glad to see some action from this fellow Edmondson. He looks big enough to stop a whole team. Let's hope he can; he may have to before the season is over.

We can't complain of the record the team is setting. If all goes well, there will be a lot of good games ahead. If we, the team's shadow, do our part in boosting their spirits, I think we'll see a much better team fighting to bring home the glory. It's not much to ask, if we're to have the best. We've got the material that makes the best. Now let's put it together and hold it there.

We've got half-a-dozen good-looking cheerleaders but they need somebody to lead in their cheers. When the Lions beat Wentworth tonight, let's all be there to cheer for them. Remember at least six of you fans can go in one car. Let's make a caravan. It's fun. See you there?

Lions Swamp Kansas City 49-14

Terry Wilson dashed 61 yards to pay dirt and the first of eight T.D.'s as the Lions rolled over the Blue Devils of Kansas City, Kansas, 49-14, in the first Interstate Conference game for the Green and White September 29, at Junge Stadium.

Wilson broke through on the second play after the Steggemen took possession of the ball and galloped 61 yards for the first Joplin score. Bill Repplinger's try for the extra point was wide.

Steve Gibbons blocked a Blue Devil punt and Repplinger recovered on the Kansas' eight-yard line. Sweeping wide to the right, Gus Gustafson fired a shot into the end zone where Wilson was waiting for the second tally for the Lions. Repplinger's attempt for the extra point again fell wide.

Juco's last score in the first quarter came when Bob Speedy, Lion halfback, darted 10 yards into the end zone, raising the score to 18-0. Joe Haughawout's try at the extra was wide.

Garry Church was accountable for Joplin's next tally as he streaked 39 yards for the score. Gene Smith's try at the extra point fell short.

Within two minutes after the final half of the game, Wilson outpaced Blue Devil defenders 77 yards and a touchdown. Haughawout again attempted the extra point but it was no good.

Speedy carried the oval 19 yards and paydirt a short time later to put Joplin ahead, 36-7. Repplinger ran around right end for the extra point, setting the score at 37-7.

Don Rutherford trotted 43 yards for the seventh Joplin tally. Rutherford also attempted the extra point but it was no good.

The Lions' final score came when Rutherford darted 20 yards. The Blue Devils scored in the second and fourth stanzas.

The win was the second in three starts for the Lions and the first conference battle of the season.
